SENATE. WASHINGTON, June 6 .- A lengthy debate ensued in which Trumbul! inter-rupted to make a report from the Committee of Conference on the Arkansas bill, saying it would have some influtwenty miles north of this city.

The authorities continue to receive inence in regard to the decision on this bill. He explained that the Committee recommend an agreement to the hill as passed by the House, with some slight formation that Fenian raids are in preverbal amendments in the pressible, and a further amendment as it passed the House. The bill provided as a fundamental condition, that change of the BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Constitution should be made depriving any citizen or class of citizens of the any citizen or class of citizens of the right of suffrage who are recognized in the District Court of the United States, for the Constitution. The Committee had added the provision, that the Constitution of Frank A. Sande a. Bankrupt. In banktion may be changed as to the time and whom it may concern: place of residence, as the people think he undersegoed nevery gives notice of his proper. Also as to the right of foreign—samment as assigned frank A. Sanders, Sanders, called attention to the omission, by a cierical error, of the word "all" before the words" the inhabitants," which had been agreed upon by the Committee.

Trumbull withdrew the report for the purpose of correcting it, and the debate For Piles, Old Sores, Scalds, Burns, Etc. then continued. Secretary Gorham was sworn in and the Senste proceeded with the consideration of the bill for the admission of North Carolina, South Carolina, Geor-gia, Louisiana and Florida. The report of the Conference Committee on the Arkaneas bill was then presented as corrected, and agreed to.

Gas Chandeliers, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 12 Lights, Fessenden moved to go into executive session, but withdrew the motion at the instance of Wilson, who made an una-into executive session. Trumbull interrupted him to express the hope that the Senators would come here on Monday prepared to press the pending bill. The Senate then went into executive session, and soon after adjourned. HOUSE. The House agreed to hold no evening To whom it may concern:
